ABOUT EDEM AND MARINA DE EMPRESAS

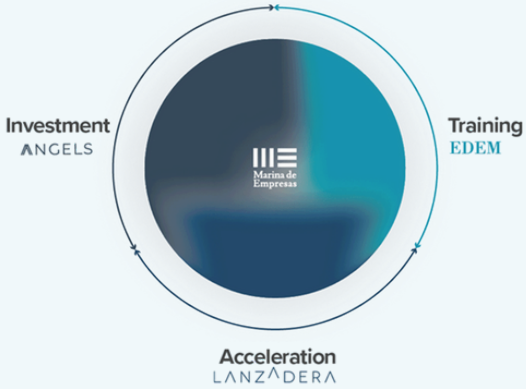
Marina de Empresas is born with the mission of promoting the talent of individuals, to strengthen the business network that improves society.

The initiative originates and is supported by Juan Roig, president of Mercadona, the largest supermarket chain in Spain.

We are a unique ecosystem located in a privileged space formed by entrepreneurs, students, professors, entrepreneurs, and investors.

THE LARGEST BUSINESS HUB IN THE MEDITERRANEAN



EDEM Business School is part of Marina de Empresas. We are a foundation born to train managers, executives and entrepreneurs and promote leadership, entrepreneurial spirit and culture of effort, being a source of talent for society.

More than 220 companies support the project. As a Foundation, we are lucky to have the support of a Board of Trustees made up of leading companies like Mercadona, Deloitte or Vodafone.

Right now, we are more than 900 undergraduate students sharing EDEM facilities.

FREE MOVER

A Free Mover student is someone who wishes to study at EDEM but whose home university does not have an exchange agreement with us or has no exchange places available.

Studying at EDEM as a Free Mover involves a fee of €4,000 per semester.

This €4,000 fee, except in special cases, is paid all at the beginning or in two equal installments: one before the semester starts and one at the end. If the student attends EDEM as a Free Mover for a full academic year, the payment will be made all at the beginning or in four equal installments throughout the year.

The Application Process is the same as for exchange students and follows the same deadlines. The only difference is that the student will have to fill out and submit an additional document during the application with the payment information.

Recovery exams can be done at EDEM or at the home university.*

ACADEMIC OFFER

Students can enroll in three different tracks: Business Management and Market Strategy, Leadership and Strategic Planning in Business, or Innovation and Excellence in Digital Business (Fall Semester) and in Global Entrepreneurship & Business Strategy (Spring Semester). All tracks have a minimum of 30 ECTS.

Spanish classes are mandatory for non-Spanish speakers.

LANGUAGE

It is not mandatory to have a certificate in English or Spanish, but we expect a minimum level equivalent to B2, as the subjects are taught in English or Spanish.

WORKLOAD

30 ECTS x Semester
1 ECTS = 25 hours

GRADING SYSTEM

| | |
|---|---|
| FAIL | 0 - 4,9 |
| PASS | 5 - 6,9 |
| GOOD | 7 - 8,9 |
| MERIT | 9 - 10 |

EVALUATION

ATTENDACE IS MANDATORY

It is mandatory to attend to the 85% of the classes. Failing to achieve an 85% attendance rate will mean having a 0 on the continuous evaluation and the student will need an 8,34 out of 10 to pass the subject.

CURRICULAR ADAPTATIONS

If any student has a learning difficulty or special need that requires academic accommodations, the student must upload at least one of the following documents during the application process:

- An official medical report stating the student's diagnosis.

- An official document issued by the home university (including logo, stamp, and signature) detailing the academic accommodations currently granted to the student.

These documents will be reviewed by EDEM's Guidance Department, which will assess how the accommodations can be implemented at our institution, whenever possible.

WELCOME DAYS

It is mandatory for students to participate in our Welcome Days. The only possible exceptions are visa-related issues or academic obligations at the home university that require their attendance.

The Welcome Days always take place one week before the semester starts and last two days.

ACCOMODATION

EDEM does not have on-campus housing and does not make accommodation arrangements for students. However, it does offer advice about the different types of accommodation.
